

CENTER FOR PSYCHOLOGY

VITA

Kristin A. Z. Adkins, LISW-S, LICDC-CS

LICENSED INDEPENDENT SOCIAL WORKER - SUPERVISORY DESIGNATION

LICENSED INDEPENDENT CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY COUNSELOR - CLINICAL SUPERVISORY DESIGNATION

EDUCATION

June 2006

The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio

Master of Social Work, Specialization in Children and Family Services

May 2001

Miami University, Oxford, Ohio

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, Minor in Organizational Behavior

CERTIFICATION AND LICENSURE

March 2012 - Present

Licensed Independent Chemical Dependency Counselor

December 2010

Certificate in Leadership in Human Services Management

July 2008 - Present

Licensed Independent Social Worker with Supervision Designation

June 2008 - Present

Certification in School Social Work

CLINICAL SOCIAL WORK EXPERIENCE

March 2011 - Present

Clinical Supervisor, Outpatient Program

The Buckeye Ranch, Columbus, Ohio

- Provides individual and group clinical supervision for OP Clinicians, Contract Clinicians, Clinical Interns: audits RDLs, reviews and approves individual treatment plans, provides case consultation, reinforces evidenced-based treatment modalities, monitors and assesses productivity, facilitates problem-solving, etc.
- Collaborates with collaterals, markets for OP, expanded OP to Newark, initiating OP services in West High School, provides Quality Customer Service training and serves on Committees to enhance TBR services.

CENTER FOR PSYCHOLOGY

January 2011 - April 2011

Family Coordinator, Family Resources

The Buckeye Ranch, Columbus, Ohio

- Conducts and completes thorough diagnostic assessments and appropriate referrals for TBR services.

August 2008 - January 2011

Cross Creek Day Treatment Program Clinician

The Buckeye Ranch, Columbus, Ohio

- Provides individual, family and group counseling and therapy and crisis assessments and interventions while addressing barriers to learning in a partial hospitalization environment.
- Provides mental health case management, advocacy, and coordination of services with all treatment team members, completes diagnostic assessments, and facilitates transitions to home schools or other appropriate academic placements. Supervised a MSWII student; provided education and experience in social work.

July 2006 - August 2008

Intensive Family Support Program Clinician

The Buckeye Ranch, Columbus, Ohio

- Provided intensive in-home individual and family counseling and therapy and crisis intervention.
- Provided mental health case management, advocacy, and coordination of services with all treatment team members, completed diagnostic assessments, and facilitated reunification from out of home placements.
- Supported clients in school environments and legal system, assisted with IEPs and probation compliance, assisted parents with navigating school and legal policies and procedures and assisted various personnel with collaborating with parents. Supervised a MSWII student; provided education and experience in social work.

August 2005 - May 2006

Clinical Social Work Intern

Wedgewood Middle School, Columbus Public Schools, Columbus, Ohio

- Designed and facilitated psycho-educational groups focused on self-esteem and empowerment for 7th grade girls.
- Organized and guided the seventh grade and eighth grade Youth-to-Youth Programs.
- Provided individual counseling, conflict resolution, linkages with appropriate referrals and tutored students.

March 2005 - June 2005

Clinical Social Work Intern

St. Vincent Family Centers, Preschool Partial Hospitalization, Columbus, Ohio

- Designed and facilitated psycho-educational groups focused on self-esteem and empowerment for 7th grade girls.
- Provided a safe, supportive school environment for children ages 3-6 years with severe behavioral and emotional needs.
- Assisted with intakes, home visits, classroom management, crisis intervention and individual, family, and group therapy.

CENTER FOR PSYCHOLOGY

November 2003 – June 2004

Interim Assistant Supervisor, Day Treatment

Hathaway Children and Family Services, Sylmar, California

- Interdisciplinary Team Member, reinforced day treatment licensing requirements and guidelines, maintained communication logs and supplies and supervised Mental Health Rehabilitation Specialists.
- Contributed to session scheduling, planning and special event planning while continuing to provide and manage psycho-educational, recreational, and life skills groups, and compose individual client progress notes for each group.
- Appointed to the task force for developing and executing the Day Treatment and Residential integration program.

December 2002 – June 2004

Interim Assistant Supervisor, Day Treatment

Mental Health Rehabilitation Specialist, Sylmar, California

- Developed and directed psycho-educational, recreational, and life skills groups for SED clients ages 8-18 years.
- Responsible for a caseload of 8 male clients ages 13-16 years; conducted daily community transition meetings, composed progress notes and weekly day care notes including summaries documenting clients' progress and areas for improvement.
- Liaison for Day Treatment and Residential programs; contributed to treatment team decisions, facilitated integration of both programs, and supported and assisted Residential Staff (Promoted to Interim Assistant Supervisor, Day Treatment).

December 2001 – December 2002

Assistant Supervisor, Residential

Hathaway Children and Family Services, Sylmar, California

- Reinforced residential licensing requirements and guidelines, maintained medication orders, scheduled and supervised Youth Counselors, and maintained all communication logs, cottage supplies, and client inventories.
- Enhanced the development and implementation of crisis intervention plans, supervision plans, individual client reward plans, and facilitated communication between Clinicians, Supervisors, Youth Counselors, and clients and their families.
- Trained new employees and transitioned Youth Counselors to ensure consistency and teamwork.

August 2001 – December 2001

Youth Counselor, Residential

Hathaway Children and Family Services, Sylmar, California

- Provided a safe, supportive environment for SED female clients ages 12-16 years while coaching clients in developing life skills, problem-solving skills, anger management strategies and coping skills strategies.
- Dispensed medication, reinforced program guidelines and supervised clients (Promoted to Assistant Supervisor).

CENTER FOR PSYCHOLOGY

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

1999 - 2001

Shift Supervisor and Counselor, Crisis Center Phone Hotline

Community Counseling & Crisis Center, Oxford, Ohio

- Provided back up for various agencies, refined solid listening skills, and enhanced interpersonal skills.
- Facilitated small group discussions, role-play sessions, computer training, reviewed policies and assisted trainees.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Ohio School Social Work Association, Board Member, 2006-2008 Central Regional Co-Chair

Top Banana Award, Crowning Glory Award and Salvage Award (HCFS)

Miami University Dolibois European Center Study Abroad, Luxembourg, Europe